

SOLAN HARMONY

In Home Economics, students have been exploring summer fashions. They researched different colors, lightweight fabrics, and various silhouettes that align with their theme. Students put together an outfit and presented to their peers in preparation for their very own fashion show. Some of them were even brave enough to practice their strut down the runway!

“Embracing Diversity, Creating Harmony:
Students Unite for style”

