

SOLAN HARMONY

SOLAN SKI TRIP UPDATE!

Preparations for the ski trip is underway, and the students are very excited about the event. Everyone is looking forward to it!

This time, they are organizing groups for task like sleeping arrangements and individual responsibilities, with each student choose a specific role within their group. This helps them develop not only responsibility but also teaches them valuable life skills, such as socializing effectively, building good relationships, problem-solving and fostering independence.

They are also brainstorming ideas for the afternoon activities, both indoor and outdoor, to make the most of their time during the trip. They are considering options that will be fun, engaging and inclusive, ensuring everyone has a memorable experience. The excitement and preparation are bringing a sense of unity and anticipation to the group, making this trip an event they'll cherish for a long time.
